

Questions about the topic 3.2:

1. The cultural dimension of time by E. T. Hall can be distinguished in...
 - a. ... High and Low Context cultures.
 - b. ... Long and Short-Term orientation.
 - c. ... Monochronic and Polychronic time orientation.

2. To which dimension by E. T. Hall is the following attitude referring?

“Time is highly organized. The Product is more important than the process.”

- a. Monochronic time orientation
 - b. High Context orientation
 - c. Low Context orientation
3. People from High Context cultures tend to...
 - a. ...use non-verbal communication like facial expressions and gestures.
 - b. ... separate their personal relationships from their work.
 - c. ... use more verbal communication.

Correct answers:

1c

2c

3a