

Questions about the topic 4.2:

1. Multicultural teams are often the result of...
 - a. ... managers who frequently go on business trips.
 - b. ... globalization.
 - c. ... strategic management decisions to consider different regional interests in a multinational corporation.

2. Which of the following answers relates to the strengths of multicultural teams?
 - a. Different values, such as personal responsibility, competition, acceptance of criticism or group harmony.
 - b. Varying approaches to time management.
 - c. Different working styles leading to productive and innovative ways of collaboration.

3. How can effective group dynamics be achieved within a multicultural team?
 - a. Perspectives for multicultural team cooperation should be defined beyond the current project.
 - b. The group must be given time and space to discover, explore and appreciate deeper commonalities, such as values and lifestyles.
 - c. Through not considering the cooperation process and the group climate because there is no time for such psychological issues.

Correct answers:

1c

2c

3b