

Module 1: Soft-skills

Topic 1.2: Soft-skills for 21st century

Quiz

Check your knowledge by answering questions in the following quiz:

21st-century skills are:

- Investigation
- Communication
- Collaboration
- Creativity
- Critical thinking
- Confidence
- Optimism

Which are the most common approaches to teach soft-skills in higher education?

- self-directed learning
- problem-based learning
- competitions
- role-playing
- group techniques for the creation of new ideas

Which are the pros of the introduction of student projects in the curricula?

- Promotion of employability of graduates
- Encouragement of team building and collaboration abilities
- Involvement of alumni
- Relevant learning opportunities for students
- Huge teachers' initiative

Choose from the list, which are the EU key competences:

- Learning to learn
- Social and civic competences
- Presentation skills
- Sense of initiative and entrepreneurship
- Cultural awareness and expression
- Selling skills