

Module 4: Critical thinking

Topic 4.2: How to teach critical thinking?

Quiz

Check your knowledge by answering questions in the following quiz:

What is the definition of critical thinking?

- Higher level thinking that aims to solve a problem.
- Finding faults and weaknesses in other people's arguments.
- Logically analyzing arguments in a critical way.
- Disciplined thinking and judgement.

Select the element that is not part of the critical thinking standards.

- Clarity
- Relevance
- Relativistic thinking
- Completeness
- Logical correctness

What is not the characteristic of a critical thinker?

- He uses logical skills in reasoning.
- He refuses to recognize the limitations of his mind and consistently pursues excellence.
- He thinks independently and does not always succumb to peer pressure.
- He upholds the standards of critical thinking.

Lecturer: You all should focus on this section. It's a critical section that requires a lot of thought and review. Peter: Ah, I know everything. This section is not a problem for me. I don't need to learn this. What mistake has Peter committed here, with respect to critical thinking?

- Group bias
- Stereotype
- Moral subjectivism
- Self-serving bias
- Relativistic thinking

'For this entire semester, I've been playing and having fun everyday. My studies are not doing well. However, I believe I can score an A for the exam next week'. What is the mistake that the person has committed here, with respect to critical thinking?

- Wishful thinking
- Egocentrism
- Self-confident thinking
- Moral subjectivism