

Quiz - Credibility of available information

1. Disinformation:

Select three options:

- a. disinformation is a recent thing - False
- b. inventing the press, by Gutenberg, increased the dissemination of disinformation True
- c. fake news is always created to alarm or influence - False
- d. social media increased disinformation - True
- e. disinformation was never used to confound voters during elections - False
- f. disinformation has been going around for over 2000 anos - True

2. according to IFLA, in order to stop fake news we should:

Select three options:

- a) read the whole story, not just the headline - True
- b) don't trust people who have not published work outside the Internet - False
- c) don't trust Internet news - False
- d) see if it is a hoax - True
- e) don't pay attention to the date of the news, as it is irrelevant to its veracity. - False
- f) check on the author, doing research, if necessary. - True

3. fake news are:

Select three options:

- a) sometimes misunderstood jokes - True
- b) always created to confound readers - False
- c) news that are untrue, from several sources and with different goals - True
- d) a recent thing - False
- e) spread more easily in the digital world - True
- f) news created exclusively by newspapers to influence their readers - False